

The Caledonian Mercury.

Edinburgh, Thursday, July 3, 1746.

Since our last arrived a Holland Mail.

From the London Gazette, June 28.

HIS Swedish Majesty has been very much indisposed these three Days past with a severe Attack of the Gravel. The Swedish French Officers at Gotenbourg have been told, that as many as are willing to repair to France at their own Expence, shall be employed in the Station and Rank they had been at first engaged to serve in; but such as would not, were at Liberty to return home, or go where they pleased.

Vienna, June 25. N. S. Since the Arrival of Count Althan with the hasty Account of the Battle of Placentia, we have not received any Advices from Prince Lichtenstein. The Right Wing of the Enemy was repulsed three Times, and was not routed but by the timely falling in of the Austrian Cavalry under the Command of General Luchefi; whereas the Left Wing of the Enemy had repulsed the Austrians three Times before they met with the same Fate. Prince Lichtenstein has obtained great Reputation. He was every where in the Action, and himself, tho' much indisposed, ordered all the Dispositions which were to be made. Before Count Althan set out from the Army, he saw M. de Gages Adjutant, who had been at the Austrian Camp to demand an Armistice for the burying of the Dead, and learnt from him, that several of the Enemy's General Officers were killed and wounded. M. Chevert and M. de Mirepoix were said to be dangerously wounded.

Camp at Terbyde, July 5. The Hessian Battalions arrived in Camp Yesterday, and they appear to be in good Order, their Cloathing and Recruits will join them soon.

Rotterdam, July 5. N. S. The Van Guard of the Austrian Reinforcement from the Rhine, consisting of all their Light Horse, is arrived at Roermonde.

Hague, July 1. We hear that the Empress Queen of Hungary has nominated Marshal Bathiani to succeed C. Cauniz in the Post of Minister Plenipotentiary for the Government of the Austrian Netherlands.

Hague, July 5. It is said here, that the 20,000 Austrians are to begin to pass the Rhine, as this Day, at Kesseldorf, and it is supposed Marshal Bathiani may soon make a Motion towards his Left, to secure their Passage over the Meuse at Venlo, and their Junction with the Allied Army. That of France continues, according to our Advices, quiet in its old Post; and the Siege of Mons does not seem pushed on with any great Ardour. M. Vander Heim, the Pensionary of Holland, finds his Health so much impaired by the Fatigues of his Post, that he has demanded, and obtained Leave of his Masters to make a Tour for six Weeks to Spa, and proposes to set out To-morrow: se'night. The States of Holland have appointed M. Secretary Buys to manage in the mean time their Affairs in the Generality, and M. 'Graevemoer, a first Noble, will perform the Functions of Pensionary in their Assembly. By our Advices from Paris of the 1st. N. S. the French lost 4000 Men in the late Engagement near Placentia. The Chevalier Broglie, Colonel of the Regiment of Poitou, was killed, as were several other Colonels, and the Marquis de Mirepoix was dangerously wounded. The French Court was in great Confusion, and Orders had been sent to all the Troops in Franche Comte to march forthwith towards Italy. The same Letters mention, that Post Chaises had been ordered to be ready upon the Roads for the Return of the French King to the Army in the Netherlands, which it was supposed would take Place immediately after the Dauphin was brought to Bed; and that the Brest Squadron put to Sea from Rochelle the 22d past, N. S.

The following is a List of the said Squadron, as we have received it from thence.

List of the Squadron under the Duke d'Anville, Lieutenant General of his Majesty's Naval Forces, which sailed from Rochelle the 22d of June, N. S.

The Land Forces are commanded by M. Pommier, Brigadier General.

The Dutch Ships which are at Rochfort, Rochelle, and other Places, had been detained two Days after the Departure of the French Fleet, for Fear of their giving Intelligence to the English.

Whitehall, June 28. The King has been pleased to appoint Sir John Ligonier, Knight of the Bath, to be General and Commander in Chief of all his Majesty's British Forces, and of those in his Majesty's Pay in the Austrian Netherlands.

From Wye's Letter, London, June 28.

Yesterday the Lords received the Report from the Committee appointed to search the Precedents for the Trial of Criminal Peirs, with several other Resolutions.

Ordered that an humble Address be presented to his Majesty, to desire that he would be pleased to appoint a Lord High Steward to continue during the Trials of the Earls of Kilmarnock and Cromarty, and Lord Balmerino, and that a Place may be prepared in Westminster-hall for the said Trials; and ordered that the said Address be presented to his Majesty by the Lords of the White Staves.—Read a second Time the Bill for regulating the Insurances of Ships belonging to the Subjects of Great Britain.—Adjourned to Monday.

The Commons past the Bill to prevent the running of prohibited Goods.—Put off the Supply to that Day fe' n-night.

By the above Mail we have Advice, that two French Privateers had taken on the Coast several of our Ships, and that many of them had on board very valuable Car-goes.

The French Squadron is now said to be at Sea, and to consist of 3 Ships of 70 Guns each, and a few Ships of a lesser Force; so that it is believed, in case Admiral Maitin, who is not put back to Plymouth, as was reported, had divided his Squadron into three Divisions, either of them are capable to destroy the said Fleet, if they should fall in their Way.

On the 28th instant Mons offered to capitulate on honourable Terms, but were refused.

From the London Evening Post, June 28.

Brussels, June 27. His Excellency Marshal Saxe has for some Time past delivered himself in several publick Conversations, in such Terms, as if he looked upon a Peace as a Thing concluded; but by the great Quantities of Ammunition lately sent to his Army, the Disposition he is making, and the recalling the King's Minister at the Hague, we persuade ourselves that the News of a Battle will precede that of a Peace, and that the Marshal only talks of the latter, that he may conceal the former, which is his true Design.

London, June 21. Last Thursday the Commission of Lunacy granted formerly against the Rev. Mr. John Ker, was discharged. The Case of this Gentleman has in it something very singular. By a Fall from his Horse, about ten Years ago, his Brain was so disordered, that the aforesaid Commission was granted against him, and his Living sequester'd; in which Condition he remained 'till last April, when he fell into so heavy a Lethargy, that for seven Weeks he differed in no respect from one asleep, and then awoke restor'd, to all Appearance, to his former Understanding; and when examined, returned to every thing very satisfactory Answers.

L. O. N. D. O. N., June 28.

This Day arrived the Mail from Holland, by which we have the following Advices:

According to Letters from Turin, a Report prevails there, that the Troops assembling in Toscany are desir'd to enter the State of Genoa, the Emperor intending to declare War against that Republick in Quality of Grand Duke of Tuscany, and the English Fleet is to support that Expedition.

We hear from Copenhagen, That the French Minister has presented a Memorial to the Court, demanding the Enlargement of the thirteen French and Scott Officers that arrived some Time since at Bergen in Norway from Scotland, and have been confined there at the Request of the British Consul; but these Advices don't inform us of the Answer, given to that Memorial.

From Paris we have a Confirmation that the Fleet under the Duke d' Anville set sail the 22d Instant, N. S. immediately after receiving on board a Person of Distinction in Disguise; and they add, that it did not put back the next Day by contrary Winds. Our Accounts of the Strength of this Fleet vary, some making it to consist of upwards of 180 Sail of Men of War, Bomb-Kerches Fireships, Transports, &c. but others make it only 51 Sail in all.

They write from the Camp before Mons, of the 28th Instant, N. S. that the Fort which lies without the Gate of Bertamont, was carried that Day after a vigorous Defence; and that the Prince of Hesse Philidael and Lieutenant-General Count Nava, who commands in the Town, had offered to deliver up the Place upon Condition in the Garrison should march out with all the Honours of War; but the Prince of Conti made Answer, That they must expect no other Capitulation than was granted to the City of Brussels.

We hear that the Day fixed for the Trial of the Earls of Cromarty and Kilmarnock, and Lord Balmerino, is to be on the 28th of next Month.

And that circular Letters are ordered to be wrote to all the Peers out of Town, to give their Attendance at the said Trials.

The Marquis of Tullibardine is very ill with the Bloody-Flux in the Tower, and is attended by Dr. Willmott, one of his Majesty's Physicians.

Last Thursday Morning between Four and Five o'Clock, the Rebel Prisoners that were in Newgate, to the Number of twenty six, and at the same Time the ten that were confin'd in New-Prison, Clerkenwell, were carried in eleven Coaches, attended by a proper Guard, from the said Goals to the Court-house at St. Margaret's-Hill, Southwark, where their Names were

To BRITONS.

THO' she pretends a Party to advance,

The Whole to weaken is the Aim of France.

Her End is gain'd, and full her Taste of Joy,

If thoughtless BRITONS, Britons will destroy.

Too long divided let us now unite,

Mix our Resentment, and direct it right.

From the St. James's Evening Post, June 28.

Milan, June 6. O. S. Our Citadel has just now discharged 18 Pieces of Cannon, on Account of the Victory gained at Placentia, which, among other advantageous Consequences, must be attended with this, that it will free our Frontiers, and the adjacent Country from the apprehensions that we have been for some Time under, more especially while General Pignatelli commanded on this Side the Po, who was the greatest Master in the Art of levying Contributions that has appeared in this Part of the World since the War began. The four Armies of Imperialists, Spaniards, French, and Piedmontese, are all now in less than a Day's March of each other; but as there are none of them very well furnished with Provisions, there seems to be no sort of Question that Matters will be brought to an absolute Decision without Delay.

Frankfort, June 15 O. S. The 11th of this Month six Imperial Regiments of Horse and Foot passed the Main at Florshiem and Russelshiem; they are the last regular Troops that are to march into the Low Countries, but they are to be followed by a Corps of Dalmatians, Horse and Foot, and by other Irregulars. All the French Forces on the Rhine, and in the Neighbourhood of Landau, have received orders to march with the utmost Expedition into Brabant.

Rotterdam, June 25. O. S. There are several confirmed Reports of the Army of the Three Crowns being cut off, and Don Phillip's being made a Prisoner; as also that Prince Lichenstein, with one Part of the German Army, is marching into Naples, thro' Tuscany, and that the other Part, under General Roth, has join'd the Sardinian Army, and are marching, by the State of Genoa, towards Provence. That it is expected the Genoese will submit without Opposition; and that the two Armies will respectively enter the Dominions of France and Naples about the Beginning of August. The Governor of Tortona sent the Keys of the Town to the King of Sardinia; and, consequently, that all this Side of Italy is once again in a State of Tranquility.

LONDON, June 28. Orders are come to the French Camp near Brussels, for removing their Quarters, calling in the out Parties, and Detachments, and sending off a Body of Horse into France, as is supposed, to march Southwards. This has given Count Saxe great Uneasiness; and it is whispered, that Orders are sent to raise the Siege of Mons, and for the Army there to retire to the main Body.

Yesterday it was reported, that one of the Transports, belonging to General St. Clairs Expedition was lost near the Isle of Wight, and all the Men drown'd.

Last Wednesday the Transports with all the English Forces on board, to the Number of 6000, sailed from the Nore, and as the Wind proved very fair, it is not doubted but they all arrived safe at Williamstadt on Thursday Morning.

The Men of War and Transports bound to Cape Breton are put back to St. Helens, together with the India Ships, by contrary Winds; and the Princess Amelia, best, bound to India, received some small Dammage by one of the Ships running foul of her in a brisk Gale of Wind.

EDINBURGH, July 3. A General Court Martial was lately held at Stirling, the Honorable Colonel Naizen President, where Lieutenant George Cumming of his Regiment of Dragoons, who had the Misfortune to be made Prisoner at the Battle of Falkirk, being charged with several Accusations with respect to the Manner of his being made Prisoner by the Rebels, and of their Treatment of him while in their Hands, was honourably acquitted of the whole Charge; and the Sentence of the Court Martial has been approved of and confirmed by his Royal Highness the Duke.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland is still at Fort Augustus, and, it is said, will stay some Weeks longer in that Country, before he move Southward.— On Friday last was brought in to that Place Macneil of Barra, and 55 private Men.— Detachments are still searching the remotest Highlands and Islands, and every thing else put in Practice tending to restore Tranquillity to the Country.

Lord Loudon has returned from Ruthven to Inverness, carrying along with him Glenbucket's Son. His Lordship is every Day in Motion, and on all Occasions alert.

We have no Accounts of the Success of the Party detached from Ruthven to Scott Minnieg.

Yesterday were brought over from Angus, Andrew Fitbie, Francis Anderson, and Barbara Coutts, Servants to Baillie William Ogilvie in Meikle-Kenny in the Parish of Kingauldrum, under a Guard of St. George's Dragoons, and were committed to Prison, for the Murder of John Catanach late Servant to Baillie Ogilvie. They were this Forenoon served with a Copy of their Indictment.

The Lords of the Session have this Day nominated and appointed Baillies, for giving Infestments in and upon all Lands holding Burgage within this City, until a Magistracy is restored therein.

On the 27th of June last, the University of Glasgow, unanimously conferred the Degree of Doctor of the Laws, upon Hercules Lindsay Advocate, who has these seven Years bygone, taught the Civil Law at Glasgow with Approbation.

¶ This Day, the 26th Day of the Moon, it is high Water at Leith, Forenoon, at 10 o'clock, 42 M. Afternoon, at 11, 6 M. Friday, Forenoon, at 11, 30 M. Afternoon, at 11, 54 M. Saturday, Forenoon, at 12, 48 M. Afternoon, at 12, 42 M.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

By Order of the Right Honourable the Earl of DALKEITH, These are to give Notice, That his Lordship has given Directions for preserving the GAME upon his Estate in the Parishes of Langholm, Westerkirk, Eskdale-muir, Ewes and Cannobie.— He expects no Gentleman will, without proper Authority, hunt upon his Grounds; and has given Orders to prosecute Transgressors in Terms of Law.

¶ That strict Orders are given to preserve the GAME on the Lands belonging to the Lord KILKERRAN in Carrick, in the Shire of Ayr. Whoever therefore shall presume to hunt upon the said Ground, without a Warrant from the Proprietor, will be prosecuted with the utmost Rigour.

EDINBURGH: Printed for THOMAS RUDDIMAN and COMPANY, and sold at the Printing-house in the Parliament-close; where Advertisements and Subscriptions are taken in.

Lost or Stolen from Berwick upon Tweed, on Friday the 27th of June last, and this is to inform all who may be found to have

A large heavy DOG, of the Pointing Kind. He is mostly white, has a large light-brown Spot on his Back, with some other brown Spots on his Body, light-brown Ears, cut-tail'd, with some brown Spots on his Tail, and answering to the Name of FOX. It is supposed he has followed, or been enticed away by Soldiers. Whoever has bought, or found the said Dog, are desired to send an Account of him by Letter to Mr. James Burn of Berwick aforesaid, and they shall be suitably rewarded for their Trouble. And whoever detains the said Dog after this Advertisement, will be prosecuted for the same.

These are to give Notice,

That TWO MARES, the one Black, and the other Brown, were left by the Rebels in November last, in the Custody of William Peacock Tenant in Nether-Liberton. Whoever can prove the Property, upon Payment of the Charges of Maintenance and Advertising, shall have them restored. If they apply not within 14 Days after the Date hereof, the two Mares will be exposed to Roup, and sold for defraying the necessary Expences, and the Remainder of their Prices consigned for the Behoof of the Owner.

¶ That upon Monday the 14th July instant, there is to be sold by publick Roup, in Whole or in Parcels, at the Farm of NEWLISTON, a fine FIELD of LINT, about nine Acres. The Roup will begin at 10 o'Clock Forenoon at Breastmiln. The Conditions are to be seen at Breastmiln, and in the Hands of Mr. Robert Dalrymple Writer to the Signet.

¶ That such as gave in to Mr. GILBERT STEWART of Bonnyhaugh any LINNEN or COTTON CLOTH to be printed, do, betwixt and the 15th of July current, call for the same at Mr. CARMICHAEL's House of Bonnyhaugh, and pay for the Printing. And whatever of the said Cloth lies uncall'd for, shall against the 25th current be exposed to publick Roup and Sale in the Exchange Coffee-house, at 4 o'Clock Afternoon, for Payment of the Printing, the Expence of Advertising, and the Charge of Rouping; and the Ballance shall, upon Demand, be paid to the several Owners of the Cloth by the Representatives of Mr. Stewart.

To be exposed to judicial Roup and Sale, upon Thursday the 10th Day of July inst. betwixt the Hours of 2 and 4 in the Afternoon, by Authority of the Lords of Council and Session, within the Parliament or New Session house of Edinburgh,
